About Coach Grimsley (Lead Trainer)

A graduate of Eastern Illinois, coach Grimsley is a long-time educator and varsity level high school basketball coach. Grimsley served as Vandalia Junior High School principal for seven years. Then had served as the superintendent at the Gifford school for eight years. Grimsley coached varsity basketball for eighteen years at Teutopolis, A-C Central, and Athens. During coach's time with Teutopolis as an assistant the Varsity team won 83% of their games in 9 years. Six players went on the play Division 2 or 3 basketball. As a head coach, Grimsley's teams won 75% of their games with 8 players going in to play Junior College, Division 2 or 3. Four if the 8 were first team IBCA all state selections! Coach Grimsley is a high energy trainer and coach that will drill the defensive and offensive fundamentals required to be a successful player at all levels.

About Illinois HoopStars

The Illinois HoopStars focuses its strengths and resources on developing the individual talents and skills of players within a team and clinical context. The purpose of the HoopStars program is to give basketball players in central Illinois the chance to improve as players and compete against the best players in the country.

The instructional methods used within the HoopStars program prepare student/athletes to play in a variety of basketball systems. Basketball instruction is facilitated by experience-based, contextual teaching strategies and learning situations The HoopStars program and coaching staff works very hard to maintain a solid relationship with the area varsity basketball coaches.
