

Bloomington High School
Class of 1978
Inducted 2016

Dodie Dunson
Director of the Lawrence Irving Community Center

Dodie Dunson graduated in 1978 and was a stand-out basketball player at BHS. He attended Parkland College on a basketball scholarship and studied Recreation Leadership. As a youth, he worked at the Western Avenue Community Center as a recreation coordinator and now holds the title of Director of the Lawrence Irving Community Center where he works with at-risk youth and their families. Dodie consults with teachers, counselors and parents in District 87 to ensure students are on target for graduation. Dodie is the recipient of many awards in the community as well as his induction into the African American Hall of Fame.