Dr. John Frisch
Surgeon, President of Brokaw and St. Joseph Hospital's Medical Staff,
Chief of Surgery at all three hospitals in Bloomington/Normal

Dr. Frisch graduated in 1944 before enlisting in the Navy where he served during WWII. He then graduated from the U of I and the U of I College of Medicine. Dr. Frisch returned to Bloomington and opened an office practicing general surgery and was then granted major surgical privileges at all three hospitals in Bloomington. Dr. Frisch also served as president of the Brokaw and St. Joseph Hospital's Medical Staff, Chief of Surgery at all three hospitals and on many medical committees. Dr. Frisch now enjoys reading, attending medical meetings, golfing and enjoying his antique airplane similar to the one his father flew during WWI in France.
