

Bloomington Public Schools, District 87
Inducted 2014

Rebecca “Becky” Francois
Director of Special Education

Rebecca “Becky” Francois began her employment with District 87 as a school psychologist in 1982 and became the Director of Special Education in 1994, a job she held until her retirement in 2014. A primary goal of Becky’s was to empower others to use their skills and expertise to enhance the educational experience for all students. Becky created an atmosphere of respect and trust with families and greatly increased the awareness of education rights and responsibilities for students with disabilities as well as homeless students and their families.
