

Bloomington District 87
Inducted 2016

Dr. Earl Dickson
Teacher & Administrator

Dr. Dickson served in the U.S. Navy and began his career in District 87 in 1963 teaching at Franklin School. He later served as Principal at Jefferson, Sheridan, Centennial and Bent Elementary Schools before retiring in 1989. He then moved to Gulf Shores, Alabama and taught 11 more years before retiring again! Dr. Dickson oversaw the merging of Raymond School with Sheridan School and made the transition as smooth as possible for students, parents and teachers. Giving encouragement to teachers and students was a strength of Dr. Dickson's. His hobbies are many, but his favorite is facetime with his children, grandchildren and great grandchildren.
